Agenda

9:00 – 10:00	General Introductions
10:00 – 11:15	Penobscot Experiences Dealing with IP: Research Review, Internal Governance and Digital Strategies – James Francis (Penobscot), Director of Cultural and Historic Preservation
11:15 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 12:30	IP and Indigenous Collections: Thinking through Copyright – Trevor Reed (Hopi), Professor of Law, Arizona State University
12:30 – 1:30	Lunch
1:30 – 3:00	Breakout sessions

1. Representatives from Tribal Institutions:

Community Matters, Stories and Strategies Around IP – Facilitated by James Francis and Jane Anderson (New York University)

In this session we will be discussing some of the IP problems that tribes experience with copyright and negotiating with institutions. We will have several activities to help identify internal infrastructure needs and developing tribal wide IP approaches.

2. Representatives from Non-tribal Institutions:

Institutional IP Responses, Engagements and Workflows for Native Collections – Facilitated by Trevor Reed and Maria Montenegro (Sustainable Heritage Network, UCLA)

In this session we will be discussing current strategies and policies that institutions have in place for supporting IP negotiations with tribal institutions and community organizations. We will also be exploring some of the challenges and roadblocks experienced internally within institutions. We will discuss the new Cultural Institution Labels and have worksheets for developing new workflows for IP in Native Collections.

3:00 – 3:30	Coffee Break
4:00 – 5:00	Coming Together for Future Work (including introduction to the TK and CI Labels and general discussion)
5:00	Close of Workshop and Evaluations
